"You Want Me to Do What" Matthew 6:9-15; 18:21-35; Ephesians 4:29-31

From Sunday's message on February 16, 2025

Take some time to read and meditate on the parable of the unmerciful servant (Matthew 18:21-35) and the Jesus' pattern for prayer (Matthew 6:9-15). What do these passages tell me about forgiveness?

Why is God's forgiveness such a great gift?

What price did Jesus pay for my forgiveness and what blessing does this provide for all who come to faith in Christ? See Romans 5:1-11.

What does Colossians 2:13-15 tell me about God's forgiveness?

Why is it challenging to forgive others?

How have others forgiving me been an encouragement to me?

How has forgiving others been a blessing to me?

What does Joseph's interaction with his brothers in Genesis 50:15-21 help me with forgiving others?
